VAIL VALLEY MUSIC FESTIVAL

THE BRAVO!

VAIL VALLEY MUSIC FESTIVAL GUILD. . .

Is a group of area music lovers citizens and guests who support and promote the Bravo! Vail Valley Music Festival.

The Guild was formed in conjunction with the Festival in 1988. Its mission is:

- To support and encourage music education in the Vail Valley
- To provide concert, artist, and office support services
- To represent the Bravo! Vail Valley Music Festival in the community.
- To raise funds for the Guild and the festival

Membership to the Guild is open to anyone with an interest in fine music. All members pay modest annual dues which are directed toward music education programs and the cost of Guild events.

Many Guild members volunteer their time to staff concerts, help with fund raising events, or assist in the Festival office. However, volunteering time is not a requirement for membership.

The Guild is administered by a rotating board of elected officers, and holds public meetings annually.

THE BRAVO!

VAIL VALLEY MUSIC FESTIVAL . . .

Is one of the nation's premier summer music festivals, offering chamber music, orchestra, and popular music in both indoor and outdoor settings.

Highlights include:

- Renowned solo artists and three outstanding orchestras, the Dallas Symphony Orchestra, The Philadelphia Orchestra, and the New York Philharmonic
- A chamber music series recorded for broadcast on National Public Radio
- Free concerts by artists in the Young Musicians Program
- Family and educational concerts
